Cancer Regatta.

The Mount Sinai Yacht Club, which was incorporated in 1964, is located at Mount Sinai Harbor. It is near the Town of Brookhaven's Cedar Beach and Mt. Sinai Harbor Stewardship Center.
